EASTERN NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN]

New York Democratic State Convention

SYRACUSE N Y Sept 17—The Democratic state convention reassembled this afternoon when the following report from the committee on resolutions was read and adopted

The Democratic party of New York renew their pledge of fidelity to the principles adopted and declared unanimously by the delegates representing a majority of all the United States together assembled in their latest national convention and since reapproved and endorsed by Democratic majorities in states comprising more than half the total population of the Union reaffirm the national Democratic platform adopted at Baltimore July 4 1872 the public credit must be sacredly maintained and we denounce repudiation in every form and guise, a speedy return to specie payment as demanded alike by the highest considerations of commercial morality and honest government to the soundness of these authentic declarations of Democratic principles and reckless the times give proof the present depression of business is mainly due to the unhealthy stimulus of expenditure fashion from the unhealthy stimulus of excessive depreciation and fraudulent issues of paper money by enormous and unadjusted bounties and grants of federal taxation and by extravagance, reckless speculation in the administration of the several departments of government

The revival of prosperity for it would interrupt the healing processes of industry, it would be worse than futile to restore confidence for it would create distrust and new uncertainties in business paralyze the beginnings of enterprise, rob labor of its too scanty employment and while stifling the progress of financial reform, would inflict lasting disaster upon the credit the intelligence and the character of the country, the Democratic party of New York also reaffirm the principles set forth in the platform adopted last year at Syracuse on their subsequent declarations, majority at the election of 30,000 Democratic majority at the election following in spite of nearly 800 000 votes and the undisguised efforts all people of this republic by the influences administration of Samuel J Tilden reaffirm the New York Democratic platform adopted at Syracuse September 16 1874, First, Gold and silver the only legal tender and no currency incontrovertible with coin second, steady steps toward specie payment and no steps back, and honest payment of the public debts its faith and honor preservation of the public reverence only by government partnership with private monopolies, fifth home rule to limit and localize taxation rigidly the power entrusted to public servants, municipal state and federal and no centralization sixth, equal and exact justice to all men no partial legislation no partial taxation seventh free press, and no gag laws eighth free men a uniform excise law and no sumptuary laws ninth official accountability enforced by better methods and more frequent elections to preside over Democratic conventions assembled by public officers tenth corporation charters by state, always superissable by state in the interest of the people, eleventh, the party is the instrument to be held responsible for all legislation when in power twelfth the presidency a public trust not a private perquisite no third term this time economy in public expense, that labor may be lightly burdened the democrats of New York in convention assembled pledge themselves their nominees and their representatives in the senate and assembly to follow where an honest and faithful execution of the constitution may lead in reforming the administration of the great canals so long despoiled in their construction maintenance and revenues, to carry on with unwavering purpose and daily increasing vigor to increase the efficiency of all departments of public works and system, and to persist in reducing our state tax in which burdens have already been lightened by the retrenchments and reforms of a single year to the amount of near $5,000,000 and upon this paramount issue, and special issue of administrative reform we confidently invite the co-operation of every true democrat, every liberal republican and all our fellow citizens of whatever name, who are willing in the coming state election to unite with us in supporting reform and rules on a reform platform

The nominations are as follows John Bigelow (by acclamation) for secretary of state Lucius Robinson for comptroller, Charles S Fairchild for attorney-general, Charles N Bliss for state treasurer John D Van Buren for state engineer

Withdrawal from the Contest

SAN FRANCISCO Sept 17—The secretary of the state central committee of the Independent party formally announces to day the withdrawal of J M Irwin from the contest for the office of superintendent of public instruction

Affairs of the Stock Boards

The recent lively feeling manifested in the stock market has caused considerable pressure to be exerted in favor of opening both the Pacific and San Francisco Stock Exchanges The action of the former board yesterday afternoon in rescinding the rule imposing a fine on members for transacting outside business was supposed to be the precursor to action on that part of that board to day looking toward resumption At a meeting however, to day, nothing was done except to appoint a committee to confer with a similar committee from the San Francisco board in regard to the settlement of outstanding business, and any other question that may arise pertaining to the general interests of the two boards The committees are to report on Monday next at 10 A M There is evidently a strong feeling amongst many members of the Pacific Exchange in favor of a renewal of business In the San Francisco Board on the contrary the sentiment of members generally is much opposed to it, which may be accounted for by the fact that members of the San Francisco Board are to a great extent involved in the suspension of the Bank of California and consequently are in bad condition for resumption until that institution opens its doors again for business Many members say they are prepared to go ahead as usual but still oppose reopening at present as adverse to the general interest of the board

Bank of California

Nothing new in bank affairs to day The reopening is now mainly dependent upon the pending arrangements with correspondents Eastern and foreign, and consequently it is impossible to give any definite date for resumption

FARMING ITEMS.

George Deal who lives on Wapato raised 118 heads of wheat from one grain this year

Geo Morrow of Washington county, finished his harvest last week His wheat went 27 bushels per acre

The estimated yield of grain in Linn county this year is about a million and a half bushels, and the average about twenty one bushels per acre

The harvest on Dr Bailey's farm, near Hillsboro was finished up last week with a yield of 37 bushels of wheat to the acre and of oats 25

Mr Constable who lives a few miles from Hillsboro finished his harvest last week He had ten acres which harvested 44 bushels to the acre

Mr John Groner of Farmington Washington county, has been offered $2 000 for his spring crop but refused His wheat crop averaged 30 bushels per acre

Farmers on Tualatin plains since the late rains, have been busy in sowing their fallow lands to wheat and hundreds of acres are already sprouting for another crop

D T Phillips harvested this year a crop of spring wheat averaging 50 bushels per acre On the same ground last year he raised 40 bushels of fall wheat and the land is common farm land at that

F M Hines of Forest Grove has threshed 104 bushels of wheat from 2½ acres He thinks he lost about 50 bushels owing to dampness making about 26 bushels per acre, which is a pretty good yield for spring wheat

Mr Jefferson, living east of the mountains brought some valuable horses to Albany to sell and placed them in a pasture of Mr West lake where it appears there was an unconsecrated well into which one of them—worth about $200—went and fell

The Mercury approximates the average yield of wheat and oats in Marion county per acre Fall wheat 34 bushels spring wheat 27 oats 34 In Howell Prairie the yield per acre was fall wheat 40 bushels spring wheat 29 oats 32 In French Prairie the late grain yielded poorly being sown rad er late and the heat being intense

Harvesting will hardly be concluded this week A gentleman who made the trip from Monmouth to McMinnville on Tuesday last informs the Lepo tea that there is considerable grain standing yet in the southern part of Yamhill and in Polk county He thinks it will require a lot of next week to finish up entirely

The McMinnville Reporter says There is great activity about our grain marts these days and four horse teams hauling 70 and 100 bushels on a load are unusually numerous Our grain nearly all goes on through the piles either to St Joseph or Dayton The closing of the Commercial Mills made a serious breach in our home trade and one which we very much regret to see Prices have ranged during the week at from 91 to 95 cents per bushel

A border was overpowered by Apaches in the Valles N M last week and robbed of his money and a watch This is a new phase of Indian marauding The redskins picked out a few fat steers and drove them off without troubling their neighbors The population of the village is about 2 000 divided closely into social cliques of Brahmas Cochins Shanghaes and Dorkings and the products are eggs and spring chickens Sundays included the industrious matrons of the village turn out daily from 10 to 50 dozens of eggs which are sold for from 30 to 50 cents a dozen The brothers Gaff express but a single regret and that is that they did not found their colony fifteen years ago when eggs brought $2 a dozen and a spring chicken was worth a penny weight of gold dust

At the annual meeting of the Albany and Santiam Canal Company held last Tuesday the following directors were elected Jason Wheeler M Luper, J H Foster, D M Thompson C P Burkhart Allen Parker, J P Backenstos The new board then elected Jason Wheeler president, L Flinn, secretary and Jno Conner treasurer

The annual conference of the M E Church South met at Albany on the 15th, and is still in session Bishop Kavanaugh is the presiding officer, and Rev Jos Emery secretary, and Rev J H Stahl assistant secretary The following preachers are in attendance Revs T B White D G McFarland, E S Michel, W D Moye, J N Bell, P A Moses, J F Bradley, R J Ogleshy, J W Compton B L Burch and M Moore

A report is published that a couple of swains living in Brownsville, Linn county, having fallen out about the attentions that each were paying to a young lady of that vicinity on Sunday the 12th inst., attempted to adjust their difficulties with knives and pistols The result was that one was severely stabbed in the abdomen and in the arm while the other received a pistol shot in the side of the head tearing away the greater portion of one ear

The Albany Democrat tells this We, last Sunday, witnessed the performance of a daring feat by Miss Mossholder, of Lebanon The false work for the new bridge across the Santiam is just in place, and rises some 40 feet above the water; on the top of this false work is placed a single row of boards reaching across the river from pier to pier, and this young lady on a banter actually walked this single little track clear across the river and back again The height was so great the water so turbulent, and the passage way so narrow that it actually made our head swim to look at it and yet this young lady marched across as firmly and confidently as if she had been wandering quietly through some shady grove hauling on her jimson weed stalwart arm

The Pumpkin (Colorado) Sentinel says that peaches are worth $147 per bushel in that market and that when a man decides to indulge in a grape he just cuts a coupon off of one of his $1 000 bonds

A Mr Day, an Englishman, 45 years of age, who has been a sufferer from epileptic fits for many years was found dead in a gutter in front of the Methodist church in Salt Lake one morning last week

George Q Cannon, Mormon delegate to congress, has appointed no cadet to West Point John Burton son of Bishop Robert T Burton who was commander of the Nauvoo Legion at the massacre of the Morrisites, near Ogden Utah in 1861

Henry Jamin, the California mining engineer who recently examined and reported upon some mines in Colorado Territory, made an offer last week of $200 000 cash for the Hidden Treasure a Utah mine of assured value The owners wanted $400 000

A party of young men while awake and adventurous fellows, left Salt Lake the other day for a picturesque valley in the eastern part of Utah near the Colorado line where they purpose founding a small colony The valley selected for settlement has abundance of water, timber, and vegetation, and is well adapted for stock growing and agricultural pursuits

While the Indian commission who left Denver a few days ago were at Fort Laramie the officers and ladies at the post got up a hop for their special benefit They all wanted to go but there was only one clean shirt in the outfit Billy Allen went but went one at a time and it is probable that no one shirt ever did the same amount of extra duty in the same period of time

The commander of the post at Camp Bowie Arizona reports 200 White mountain Apaches supposed to have been removed to San Carlos recently now prowling in that vicinity and that the Chiricahuas are running in from the mountains to their agency for protection, being afraid of the Apaches It is evident even to a greenhorn that there is too much moving goes on among the Indians and that they are restless and dissatisfied with it

Two brothers named Gaff have established a mammoth hennery in Colorado Ten miles from Denver It covers four acres which is laid out like a village with streets and avenues along which are built long rows of houses of various designs Regular families are assigned to these houses, and it is found that they quickly domesticate themselves, and vessel from the open sea beyond the bar to Astoria shall be $8 per foot draft for the first 12 feet, and $10 per foot draft for any excess

Any person desirous of investigating this matter has simply to examine the pilotage and towage laws to which I have referred, and leave out of the same Capt Flavel's contract with the state (now expired) and he will at a glance see the truth of everything which I have stated

With these facts, therefore before us, I, along with other consignees and agents for foreign vessels have concluded that we shall no longer allow the shipowners for whom we act to be imposed upon, and consequently have resolved and subscribed among ourselves sufficient sums of money for the purpose of contesting in the U S district court, the legality of the first bill of charges which Capt Flavel shall tender in excess of the rates prescribed by law and all we ask is that the people of Oregon will support us in our determination to vindicate the laws and encourage and protect foreign shipping coming to Oregon from that monopoly of pilotage and towage now being enforced by those in charge of the Columbia river bar Our farmers are equally interested as ourselves, because whatever encourages shipping to come to the Columbia river by reducing the cost of vessels getting to Oregon, is virtually cheapening freights and in proportion as going to our producers a better price for their products when exported abroad

The board of trade offered without going into the question of legal rights, to accept and ratify from Capt Flavel a fixed scale of pilotage and towage charges, to be prepared by himself, but as he has disrespectfully refused to fix any schedule or scale of prices but charges what he pleases, there is no other course left for us individually as shippers for the protection of our respective shipowners interests than to appear in the United States court what are our legal rights

SATURDAY MORNING SEPT 18 1875

PILOTAGE AND TOWAGE

We publish this morning a communication from William Reid, Esq, which will be read with interest, as the subject is one that affects all the material interests of the State We are surprised to learn that any one supposes the law fixing the rates of compensation for pilotage and towage on the Columbia bar has ceased to be operative. In 1870, an act was passed giving Captain Flavel and his associates a subsidy, to induce them to place and keep at the mouth of the river a good steam tug to tow vessels in and out, under a special contract for that service, the subsidy being graded for the several years for which the contract was to last That contract has expired, so that all pilots are now on an equal footing, and all are dependent for their compensation solely upon the fees paid by the vessels for which the service is performed But the law fixing the maximum charges for such services is a continuing law, in force now and until it is repealed If the owner of any tug or pilot boat desires to go out of the business, he has the undisputable right to do so, but those who choose to remain in it must comply with the law The whole matter, as the law now stands, may be summed up in a few words any person who can pass the requisite test of competency to receive a license,—or "branch" as it is called—may put a pilot boat—steam or sail—on the pilot grounds, and bring in vessels, charging therefor the fees prescribed by law, but no person can lawfully exercise the functions of a bar pilot, except in accordance with the statute, or exact for pilotage or towage any greater fees than those prescribed

This is a subject in which the entire State is concerned. Ship-owners, in determining the rates at which they can afford to carry freight from Oregon to foreign ports, take into account the cost of pilotage and towage. This item is therefore a part of the freight charges which our producers have to allow in the sale of their produce. It is therefore their interest to have the law complied with It is also important that rates be uniform If one ship is charged the lawful fees and another double or treble that amount, the foreign owners will naturally avoid the port, as they can not make engagements with an understanding of what the bar charges will be If the compensation allowed by law is inadequate, let the Legislature so amend the law as to give those who perform this very important service to the commerce of our State a fair compensation, but the charges should always be fixed and uniform, and no arbitrary discrimination between vessels of the same tonnage should be permitted

THE REMEDY FOR HARD TIMES.

The public mind is so much absorbed in the discussion of national finance and currency, as bearing upon the subject of the commercial and social prosperity of the people, that there is little time or disposition to study the question of how far the people themselves, in their individual and personal habits, are responsible for the dull times It has become the habit to attribute the want of activity in trade to mistakes in the financial policy of the government, and to assume that the only thing that is needed to restore to business the buoyancy and thrift of the best days of the past, is some radical change in the financial management of the national capital More greenbacks, or less greenbacks, or no greenbacks, free banking, gold banking, or no banking, high tariff, low tariff, or no tariff, each of these, according to each individual's notions of the case, as all that is wanted to set the wheels of the factories in motion, fill the sails of commerce, and make the whole people busy, thrifty and happy

It will not be disputed by any rational person that the financial policy of the Government has, in a general way, considerable influence on trade, and affects, more or less, the condition of every member of society, but the best system that could be devised would not give wealth to the idle and shiftless, nor keep spendthrifts from poverty The most essential reform for our people to inaugurate, is a reform inside of their own houses and of their own habits If this generation would work as their fathers and mothers worked, and save as their fathers and mothers saved, there would be little cause for complaints about hard times. The general inflation of business produced by the war has passed away, but the business of the country is not so shrunken that an industrious and economical man or woman ever need suffer Personal expenses should share in the shrinkage Let the people try to live within their incomes, and it will be found that but few of them have not sufficient incomes to support them Set the Government an example of economy by practising economy at home. Set it an example of the advantages and benefits of specie payment by paying as you go, even though, in order to do so, you have to buy much less than in the days of inflation and speculation If you are in debt do not spend a cent for luxuries or for any article you can do do without, till your debts are paid, and thereafter buy only what you can pay for at the time Thus you will make your money go farther, because you can buy cheaper than on credit your retail merchant will do a better business, because his money will be turned over at shorter intervals the wholesale dealer will do better because he will lose nothing by failures in the retail trade, and will not be required to carry such enormous stocks of goods as he must carry under the credit system and all parties will live happier and better and longer because life will cease to be a constant worry of anxiety and a succession of misfortunes

There are too many people trying to make a living without productive work The country wants more workers and fewer speculators It wants more people in the fields and shops and fewer in the counting houses and stores We see men nearly every day seeking something to do, and apparently much discouraged because they do not find work Ask them what sort of work they want to do and most of them will say they want a place as clerk in a store, writer on a newspaper scrivener in a law office, or something of that sort All these places are already crowded Somebody must do such work, but there is room for a comparatively small number The only branch of labor that can not be overdone is the cultivation of the soil There is no danger of the farmers' market being glutted for forty generations yet to come—and none then If you can not find remunerative employment at the business you prefer that is no excuse for your doing nothing There is plenty of land for sale, for lease, for pre-emption for homestead Raise wheat raise sheep raise cattle, raise prunes raise hops Go to work somehow, at something, and stick to it and be sober and economical, and the question of inflation or resumption, rag money or hard money high tariff or no tariff, while it will interest you as a citizen and may affect your individual prosperity in a remote way will never be a vital question to your comfort or your happiness And that, too, is the way to start up the business of the country and the only thing that can bring lasting prosperity

COME TO THE POINT

We find the following amiable paragraph in the Statesman

The OREGONIAN pretends to favor the election of Hon Henry Warren to Congress and at the same time stabs him from day to day with the very worst class of political heresies There are people who may be deceived by this course and we desire to put all such on their guard against the fallacies of this subtle foe That concern is blowing hot and cold and really makes a defense more damaging than an attack

It is very kind in our Salem contemporary to volunteer its services to prevent the people of Oregon from being deceived and seduced from the path of rectitude by the OREGONIAN since they are so extremely ignorant of their own affairs as not to know without the Statesman's assistance whether a paper they read is supporting their candidate or stabbing him But our subtle intellect is so exacting in its way of viewing matters and things that we must beg the Statesman to come to the point and state the particular instance of our stabbing the Hon Henry Warren, and also to make a specific statement of the "political heresy" with which the "political heresy" with which the aforesaid stabbing (think of stabbing a man with a heresy!) was done Remember, brother Statesman, these Oregon people are, according to your ideas, entirely too stupid to perceive a heresy that is not pointed out to them, and unless you are specific to the last degree your well-meant efforts to save them from ruination are liable to be unavailing So we insist, both for our own edification and for the salvation of the dear people that you come to the point And then if you would be so kind as to tell us what can be said of Mr Warren that we have not said repeatedly, that also would be received as a great kindness, for in a personal acquaintance with him lasting through nearly twenty years, we have found nothing in his favor except that he is a tried, faithful, honest, true and capable man That we have often said of him If there is any other and better reason why he should receive the votes of the people of Oregon, please tell us all about it and we will mention it to the people.

The Democracy of New York have adopted a platform which is not likely to add very greatly to the party's chances of success in Ohio and Pennsylvania. They go the full length of repudiating the rag money scheme of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Democrats and denouncing the greenback policy as dishonorable to the party and to the nation, and calculated to bring disaster upon the country. This vigorous utterance by the Democracy in the Empire State will materially lessen the political influence of a Democratic victory in Ohio, should the party succeed there because it will make it more difficult to unite the party in the Presidential election of next year on an inflation platform The probability of an irreconcilable division in the ranks of the Democracy on the currency question increases from day to day Indeed, it is beginning to look as if the next Presidential contest may be simply a struggle between the hard money people and the advocates of an irredeemable paper currency, with the rag money Democrats and Kelleyite Republicans on one side, and all the sound currency people generally on the other side No difference under what names the parties to the contest may marshal their strength, that issue may control the voting masses causing a practical rearrangement of the people with relation to party organizations

The Statesman says The OREGONIAN evidently aspires to the position of leadership of Oregon Democracy. If that were true, we should, we fear, be a long time reaching the goal of our aspirations, as the Enterprise, which is a leading Democratic organ denounces us for a "Mogul" of the Republicans But these perturbed individuals are all wrong and we take this occasion to assure them and all others whom it may concern, that the OREGONIAN is not a candidate for the position of Democratic leader or of Republican Mogul and instead of standing in their way would be very glad to render them respectively any assistance it can in their endeavors to reach those high and honorable stations

The Evening Journal is greatly distressed because the OREGONIAN does not accept as true the stories about Warren's having been in a Know nothing lodge some time in the dim past and express an opinion as to whether it was not naughty for him to be there We beg to remind the Journal that it has not yet denounced a definite statement of our position as to the merits of the row between Paul and Barnabas which comes first in historical order though by only a short period and is of much greater importance to the people of the nineteenth century One thing at a time gentlemen

CITY LAND TITLES.—Under this head the Evening Journal of yesterday had the following sensational item, which demands prompt correction, as it is liable to excite unnecessary alarm respecting city titles

With the extinction of the Lownsdale title to property embraced within the original limits to the city of Portland, it was supposed that no further trouble need be anticipated But upon that score, but it proved a vain hope, as it was soon discovered that the titles to most of the property sold at sheriff's sale, from the commencement, were not worth the paper they were written upon and a test case in court confirmed the opinion of the attorneys interested in the matter This opened the flood gate for law suits and the result is that nearly all the property in the city is involved in some of the most valuable property in the city has been called in question, the title to some of the lots in question, the original town proprietors set apart certain blocks of land for specific purposes, which in later years, when the proprietors themselves were waging a war against each other it was discovered that the city authorities had not finally received the property in question, and jumping became the order of the day The block upon which the United States postoffice building stands was jumped by Alonzo Leland, who disposed of the title to the city of Portland, and that corporation transferred it to the United States government for a valuable consideration. We now learn that the heirs-at-law of D H. Lownsdale intend contesting the title of this and other property similarly situated This has brought to light a case involving the validity of a sheriff's sale of property in the Lownsdale tract was never in court.

2. It has not been decided that the titles to any of the property, or any of the property, sold at sheriff's sale, were not worth the paper they were written on," the question never having been raised

3 The block on which the United States postoffice building stands was never "jumped" by Alonzo Leland. He held half the block under a conveyance from Lansing Stout, and the other half he never held at all.

The other half he never held at all.

4. Alonzo Leland sold but half the block to L M Starr The other half Starr held under a sheriff's sale, on a judgment against Stout.

5. If there was any irregularity in that sheriff's sale, the Lownsdale heirs and their counsel have not been aware of it.

6. The Lownsdale heirs, as we know from our own connection with their business, and from inquiry last night, have not expressed or intimated a purpose of questioning the title to that block We thank the Journal for suggesting a defect in the sheriff's sale, however, and will look into it.

7. The Lownsdale heirs have not intimated a purpose to contest the title to other property similarly situated".

8. There is no other property in the city "similarly situated" as to title.

If the Journal would be a little more careful as to the accuracy of what it "learns," it would do more credit to itself and less injury to the city

POSTOFFICE REMOVAL.—Upon closing the general delivery window at the present postoffice this evening, the work of removing the contents of the office to the new quarters in the Custom House building will begin Boxholders can procure mail from the old office until 8 o'clock Sunday evening, when the contents of the boxes will be removed to the new office and the doors closed. Box-holders will call at the new office on Monday, after the opening hour, 8 o'clock, and exchange keys. Box rents for the quarter commencing October 1st, can be paid at the same time. The general delivery window will be open at the new office (entrances on Fifth and Yamhill streets) from 10 to 11 A. M. to morrow, and hereafter on Sundays between the above hours instead of from 5 to 6 as before. The usual hours for opening and closing the office on week days will be observed. The money order department will be kept open from 9 A. M. to 6 P M—entrance on Fifth street. The ladies window, on the east side of the building next to money order office, will be open during the usual hours. At this window stamps and envelopes can be procured. Postmaster Cole's office will be found on the north side entrances from Morrison and Fifth streets. Further mention will be made when necessary

STEAMER SAILED.—Last evening at 4 o'clock, the steamer Oriflamme sailed from this port for San Francisco with a full freight and the following passengers B H Upham, T A. SABBATH SCHOOL FESTIVAL.—Memory often recalls with pleasure the old school house, somewhat hacked with jack knives, where we spun tops and snapped marbles But our school house is more endeared, because within its chart-covered walls we meet every Sunday at 3 o'clock for Sabbath school, and the boys propose to give there an oyster and ice-cream festival, and also propose that the very stars shall wink to the children of nuts and cakes and bon bons All our friends and well-wishers are invited, for there will be no door fee. Festival to be given by the ladies of the East Portland Baptist Mission Sunday school, on next Tuesday evening, Sept. 21st, at the Lavermore school house, Stephens' addition, at 7½ o'clock The proceeds to enlarge the library and procure Sunday school papers.

SONG SERVICE.—A song service, conducted by Prof. McGibeny, will be held at the Good Templars' hall, opposite the postoffice, at 7.30 o'clock on Sunday evening, to which all are cordially invited The following programme will be followed 1, chorus, "Happy Day," congregation, 2 chant, "Hear Father," family 3 chorus, "The Sweet Voice," family; 4 song "Homeless and Motherless," Mrs McGibeny 5 chorus "Crown Him," family, 6 song "Will you meet me at the fountain," Miss Beal and duet Beautiful Home," Mrs McGibeny and Master Frank 8 chorus, "Glad Tidings" family 9, song, "Only Remembered, Mrs McGibeny, 10, song and chorus, "Sweet by and by," congregation

CITY LAND TITLES.—Under this head the Evening Journal of yesterday had the following sensational item, which demands prompt correction, as it is liable to excite unnecessary alarm respecting city titles:

"With the extinction of the Lownsdale title to property embraced within the original limits of the city of Portland, it was supposed that the further trouble need be anticipated from that score, but it proved a vain hope, as it was soon discovered that the titles to most of the property sold at sheriff's sale, from the commencement, were not worth the paper they were written upon, and a test case in point confirmed the opinion of the attorneys interested in the matter. This opened the flood gate for law suits and the result is that the title to some of the most valuable property in the city has been called in question. The original town proprietors set apart certain blocks of land for specific purposes, but in later years, when the proprietors themselves were waging a war against each other it was discovered that the city authorities had not finally received the property in question, and jumping became the order of the day. The block upon which the United States postoffice building stands was jumped by Alonzo Leland, who disposed of the title thus acquired to L. M. Starr, who in turn sold it to the city of Portland, and that corporation transferred it to the United States government for a valuable consideration. We now learn that the heirs-at-law of D. H. Lownsdale intend contesting the title of this and other property similarly situated. This harrassing opposition of title is one that we trust will soon be settled, as it works a hardship to innocent owners, and is an obstacle in the way of effecting loans upon real property in general.

"How the Journal managed to get so much absurd and mischievous error into so little space is incomprehensible. From an experience of some seven years as counsel for the Lownsdale heirs, we can say:

"1. Not a single case involving the validity of a sheriff's sale of property in the Lownsdale tract was ever in court.

"2. It has not been decided that the titles to most of the property, or any of the property, sold at sheriff's sale, were 'not worth the paper they were written on,' the question never having been raised.

"3. The block on which the United States postoffice building stands was never 'jumped' by Alonzo Leland. He held half the block under a conveyance from Lansing Stout, and the other half he never held at all.

"4. Alonzo Leland sold but half the block to L. M. Starr. The other half Starr held under a sheriff's sale, on a judgment against Stout.

"5. If there was any irregularity in that sheriff's sale, the Lownsdale heirs and their counsel have not been aware of it.

"6. The Lownsdale heirs, as we know from our own connection with their business, and from inquiry last night, have not expressed or intimated a purpose of questioning the title to that block. We thank the Journal for suggesting a defect in the sheriff's sale, however, and will look into it.

"7. The Lownsdale heirs have not intimated a purpose to contest the title to other 'property similarly situated.'

"8. There is no other property in the city 'similarly situated' as to title.

"If the Journal would be a little more careful as to the accuracy of what it "learns," it would do more credit to itself and less injury to the city.

POSTOFFICE REMOVAL.—Upon closing the general delivery window at the present postoffice this evening, the work of removing the contents of the office to the new quarters in the Custom House building will begin. Boxholders can procure mail from the old office until 8 o'clock Sunday evening, when the contents of the boxes will be removed to the new office and the doors closed. Box-holders will call at the new office on Monday, after the opening hour, 8 o'clock, and exchange keys. Box rents for the quarter commencing October 1st, can be paid at the same time. The general delivery window will be open at the new office (entrances on Fifth and Yamhill street), from 10 to 11 A. M. to-morrow, and thereafter on Sundays between the same hours, instead of from 5 to 6 as before. The usual hours for opening and closing the office on week days will be observed. The money order department will be kept open from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.—entrance on Fifth street. The ladies window, on the east side of the building, next to money order office, will be open during the usual hours. At this window stamps and envelopes can be procured. Postmaster Cole's office will be found on the north side, entrances from Morrison and Fifth streets. Further mention will be made when necessary.

STEAMER SAILED.—Last evening, at 4 o'clock, the steamer Oriflamme sailed from this port for San Francisco, with a full freight, and the following passengers: B. H. Upham, T. A. Mitchell, P. E. Brigham, H. Abraham; Mrs. Charles Hasselman, Mrs. E. A. Wagner and 3 children, C. H. Liggett, wife and daughter, J. B. Hepburn and son, Ford, Orndt and wife, Miss C. A. Beasley, James Gamble, Ira W. Felt, W. Davenport and wife, Dr. J. S. Parker, W. H. Butler and wife, Chan. Pak Kwai, John Rowe, G. M. Fisher, W. F. Hitchcock, Henry Ackernian, M. Wildinski, Mrs. J. Berry, Thos. W. Fields, wife and infant, Henry Everding and wife, C. Orndt, Mrs. H. Goodman and 2 children, James Crawford, Mrs. L. Bettman and son, W. B. Emmett, Lee Leon, M. Solomon and wife, Francis Duport, and 35 in the steerage.

SUMMER SCHOOL FESTIVAL.—Memory often recalls with pleasure the old school house, somewhat hacked with jack-knives, where we spun tops and snapped marbles. But our school house is more endeared because within its shed-covered walls we meet every Sunday at 3 o'clock for Sabbath school, and the ladies propose to give there an oyster and ice-cream festival, and also propose that the very stars shall wink to the children of nuts and cakes and bon-bons. All our friends and well-wishers are invited, for there will be no door fee. Festival to be given by the ladies of the East Portland Baptist Mission Sunday school, on next Tuesday evening, Sept. 21st, at the Livermore school house, Stephens' addition, at 7 o'clock. The proceeds to enlarge the library and procure Sunday school papers.

BOYS' BATTLE.—A song service, conducted by Prof. McGibeny, will be held at the Good Templars' hall, opposite the postoffice, at 7:30 o'clock on Sunday evening, to which all are cordially invited. The following programme will be followed: 1, chorus, "Happy Day," congregation; 2, chant, "Hear Father," family; 3, chorus, "The Sweet Voice," family; 4, song, "Homeless and Motherless," Mrs. McGibeny; 5, chorus, "Crown Him," family; 6, song, "Will you meet me at the fountain," Miss Beal; 7, duet, "Beautiful Home," Mrs. McGibeny and Master Frank; 8, chorus, "Glad Tidings," family; 9, song, "Only Remembered," Mrs. McGibeny; 10, song and chorus, "Sweet by and by," congregation.

HALF RATES.—The following correspondence, under date of 13th inst., between Mr. W. D. Fislinger, secretary of the Washington County Agricultural Society and J. Brandt, superintendent of the Oregon Central railroad, will explain itself: "During the continuance of your ninth annual fair, this company will sell round-trip tickets from all stations to Hillsboro and return at one-half the usual rates. A special train will leave Portland at 7 A. M., arrive at Hillsboro 8:50 A. M.; returning, leave fair grounds at 5 P. M., arrive at Portland 6:45 P. M. All trains will stop at the fair grounds."

A NARROW ESCAPE.—Late last evening, as a gentleman was returning to his home in the western part of the city, he noticed a cow standing "in pensive mood" on the sidewalk, disputing further passage. He essayed to pass the animal in the street, but she tossed her horns aloft and "went for" the said person, who, fortunately, retained his presence of mind and threw his hat in her face, thereby disturbing her equanimity and allowing him to escape. It is seldom these animals wander around our most popular streets, and this was probably one escaped from her owner.

SCHOOL EXERCISES.—Yesterday afternoon, literary and musical exercises were held at the Portland academy, and a number of the friends and patrons of the institution were present. The exercises consisted of declamations, essays, readings, etc. Prof. Herron and assistants seem to thoroughly understand their business, and perform their duties judiciously.

THE COURTS.—The state circuit court will not convene until next Monday, at 9 o'clock. The United States circuit court will meet on Monday morning, at 10 o'clock. On Tuesday morning the U. S. district court will meet. The county court has adjourned over until next Tuesday. The commissioners will conclude the session of the month on the 30th inst., at which time they have business before them of special interest.

CLARKE COUNTY FAIR.—Complimentary tickets have been received to the Clarke County Agricultural Fair, which will open on the grounds near Vancouver, Washington Territory, on the 5th proximo, and close on the 7th. It is the intention of the society to make the forthcoming fair the largest and most successful one yet given.

WEATHER REPORT.—From the records of the U. S. Signal Station of Observation, Portland, Oregon, September 17, 1875:

	7 A. M.	2 P. M.	9 P. M.
Thermometer	61°	80°	70°

REMAINS.—Yesterday afternoon the mortal remains of the late Mrs. Ira W. Felt, who recently departed this life at Walla Walla, were conveyed to the steamer Oriflamme, followed by a number of friends of the deceased. The remains will be conveyed to San Francisco and consigned to their last resting place, in Lone Mountain cemetery, in the family grounds.

SHOOTING MATCH.—There will be a shooting match this afternoon at the White House—a sweepstake, free to all, to shoot five birds each, according to the usual conditions. The shooting match will come off immediately after the race. Quails and pigeons will both be used.

CHANGE OF TIME.—The congregation and friends of St. Stephen's chapel, corner of Fourth and Madison streets, will please take notice that the afternoon choral service will begin at half-past 3. Seats free.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Marriages were quite numerous last week.

The "Home Social" society has "woodbined."

The Philomathean Literary Society purpose to reorganize next month.

Prof. Ryder will hold an opening dancing party, at the City Rifles hall, on the evening of October 1st.

The members of the "Active Circle," of the Unitarian Church, are working actively assisting to raise funds for the proposed new building.

Professor J. B. McGibeny's "song service," held Sunday evenings at Good Templar Hall, is well attended, and the music is much enjoyed by all.

A party of young people ascended Robinson hill yesterday evening to have a pleasant walk and gaze at the "calm and placid moon." They returned home about 10 o'clock.

We understand a number of young men have rented a room down street, and supplied it with billiard tables, cards, etc., but they allow no drinking of spirituous liquors, swearing or betting.

The young people composing the social society connected with the Taylor-street M. E. Church held a regular meeting a few evenings since, adopted a constitution and adjourned for one week, when officers will be elected.

A society has been organized at the Congregational church, which has for its object the support of foreign missions. The young ladies who constitute it are active workers, and have already procured quite a sum to be donated for the object named.

By invitation several couples of young folks met at W. G. Steel's residence, a few evenings ago, and passed the hours by engaging in games, playing charades, music, etc. The guests were well entertained, and will long retain pleasant memories of the affair.

The sociable at the Unitarian church last evening, was one of the most pleasant affairs of the kind held for a long time. The members treated all cordially, and spared no pains to render everything agreeable. The receipts were encouraging, and the sociable a decided success.

CONFLICT OF JURISDICTION.

For some days past a contest has been waged between the United States marshal and the sheriff of the county for the possession of a certain piece of property in East Portland, which has attracted considerable attention and elicited no small amount of comment among gentlemen of the legal profession. We have taken some pains to learn the particulars of the case, which are as follows: A man named Wm. Jones has been engaged in making brick the present season on a piece of land owned by Jos. B. Stephens, of East Portland. Some time since Mr. John Byers, the well known contractor, purchased a number of brick of Mr. Jones, and at the request of the latter advanced a certain sum of money as an inducement for the advancement of the money Mr. Jones told Mr. Byers where he could get a contract on that side of the river, and thus not have to haul the brick over. A few days later Mr. Byers sent a wagon over to get a load of brick, when it was learned that another creditor had an attachment on the property. Suit was at once instituted against Jones by Byers for the possession of the brick purchased. Prior to this, however, a judgment had been obtained against Jones for the sum of $400, in favor of Messrs. J. P. Ewell and Abraham Waymour. Subsequently Byers obtained judgment for the amount of his claim—$300—in the state circuit court, against Jones. Frank Belle, another creditor, instituted proceedings and obtained a judgment for $500 against the same defendant. On the 24th of August an execution was issued against the property of Jones, and a levy made by the sheriff in satisfaction of the judgment obtained by Messrs. Ewell and Waymour. On the 26th of August the sheriff levied on the property in satisfaction of the judgment rendered in favor of Mr. Byers, and on the 28th of the same month the same proceedings were had with reference to Belle's judgment. Jones, on the 2d of September, before the property had been disposed of at sheriff's sale, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, and on the 4th of the month the register in bankruptcy approved an order to the U. S. marshal to take possession of the property of the bankrupt, Jones. Previous to the filing of the petition, as we understand, and issuance of the warrant in bankruptcy to the marshal, the sheriff had levied an execution issued out of the state circuit court of the county, in the three foregoing actions, on the property in dispute as the property of defendant, Jones, and advertised the same for sale. On the 9th of September the property was sold at sheriff's sale, in satisfaction of the three judgments. At the time of the sale, the U. S. marshal claimed to be in possession of the property in dispute, which was denied by the sheriff, or the marshal's right to hold the same. Byers became purchaser at the sale, and the sheriff announced that he placed him (Byers) in possession of the property. Soon after, the purchaser commenced to remove the brick. On the 10th inst. an injunction was issued out of the U. S. district court by order of the register in bankruptcy, restraining John Byers, his agents or attorneys, from removing any property belonging to the bankrupt. Byers was engaged on the 14th in removing the brick, purchased by him at sheriff's sale, when the United States marshal appeared, and, under threat of arrest, fine and imprisonment, compelled him to desist from removing any more of the brick in dispute, and took forcible possession of the property. On the 16th inst., Byers proceeded in the state circuit court against the marshal, for the recovery of the property and damages, and gave bonds, as required by law. Sheriff Jeffery then took possession of the brick yard. The defendant is allowed three days in which to give notice of his objections to the sufficiency of the bonds furnished by Mr. Byers, which will be until next Monday. Both sides are "resting on their arms" during the temporary armistice which has been declared, the property meantime being held conjointly by the marshal and sheriff. A man deputized from each office is at present in possession of the yard. This, we believe, is the first instance in the judicial history of this county where there has been a clash between the authorities of the United States and those of the county.

AMUSEMENTS.

Quite a fair audience was present at New Market theater last evening, the occasion being the second presentation of "The Orphan Girl," under the auspices of the Catholic Social Union. The entertainment opened with the drama, in which appeared a number of well-known amateurs. We are pleased to note a decided improvement in the individual personations, although the play was not by any means above criticism. Particularization is scarcely necessary, and comparisons are generally odious, so it will suffice to say that the play, as a whole, while it possessed more or less defects, was rendered quite passably, and doubtless afforded the audience present satisfaction. Of course it would be unjust to apply the same rules of criticism to amateurs that we would to professionals, and, viewing the performance from this standpoint, we pronounce it creditable to all concerned. Immediately following the drama came several character sketches, by Mr. Frank McDermott. The poetical and romantic tableau of "Elaine" came next, which, from some defect in the light, failed to appear as advantageously as could have been desired. Concluding the evening's entertainment was the side-splitting farce of "Grimshaw, Bagshaw and Bradshaw," which was capitally rendered, and sent the audience away in good humor. This afternoon, at 2 o'clock, a matinee performance will be given for the accommodation of the little folks and ladies. This evening "The Orphan Girl," will be presented for the last time.

OUT-DOOR SPORTS.

This has been a dull year for out door sports in this locality.

What of the proposed rowing race spoken of some weeks ago?

The championship record shows the Bostons still leading on the 9th inst., with the Athletics following closely.

The Arcadians and Pioneers should commence soon to prepare for battle on the diamond field. Let us have a game in earnest as the season is drawing to a close.

At ten o'clock this morning the Spartan base ball club, of Vancouver, will meet the Atlantics, of this city, on the East Portland grounds. This will be the return game between these clubs, the Spartans having won the first game at Vancouver a few weeks ago. It behooves the Atlantics to do their level best to prevent the visitors repeating the dose, thus saving the reputation they gained at home in the past. In case they win, a third game will be in order. A close contest may be anticipated.

FIRE MATTERS.

The various companies are filling up with new members.

The daily tests of the alarm bell have proven quite satisfactory.

Several candidates are spoken of for chief engineer. Election in about six weeks.

Two fire alarms this week and neither amounted to anything more than a scare and a big run for the firemen.

Nothing new to report relative to the hose carriages ordered for Willamette and Protection companies.

In the engine house of No. 3 they have a cross which was burned from the Trinity church about a year ago. The boys prize it as a relic of the event.

POLICE COURT NOTES.

Claung Kee, arrested for violating ordinance 1,167, discharged.

John Costello, drunk and disorderly, fined $5; defendant paid.

The case of Harold Haskinson, accused of the larceny of a watch, was continued until this morning.

Thomas Wilson, found lying on the sidewalk, dead drunk, fined $10, and in default committed for five days.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Mrs. Ach continues her sales of 81, Front street. The ladies will bear in mind that the opportunity to buy at low prices is limited.

Note the announcement made by Joseph Kohn who has sent a fine lot of clothing, furnishing goods, etc., which he has selected. More to come and prices regulated to meet the demands of the season.

PERSONAL.

Rev. Thomas Frazer, synodical missionary for the Pacific coast, well known to many of our citizens as the supply of the Presbyterian church, of this city, before the arrival of Dr. Lindsley, is now in Portland. He is the guest of W. S. Ladd, Esq.

ASTORIA NOTES.

Our regular correspondent sends the following notes from Astoria, dated 15th inst.:

The British bark Dilarlie hauled in to Holbday's wharf Thursday, and is discharging ballast, preparatory to receiving cargo.

D. C. Ireland, to keep pace with the times, has issued a prospectus of the Daily Evening Astorian, to be published November 1, 1875.

The barkentine Jane A. Falkinburg is completing cargo with stave bolts, at Flavel's new wharf, and will be ready for sea about Tuesday next.

Ships City of York and City of Hankow are loading alongside farmers' dock. City of Hankow has received about 450 tons of her cargo. City of York is completing cargo, and will be ready for sea about Tuesday next.

The new tug-boat, General Gosby, Captain John Scofield, owned and built at Shoalwater Bay (W. T.), made her trial trip to Astoria on Thursday. Several ladies and gentlemen accompanied her, among them Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Crellin, Mr. Chapman, Mr. Loomis, Mr. Doane, Mr. Hansen and other prominent business men from Shoalwater Bay. She came under easy steam, and made satisfactory time to her owners, many of whom were on board.

Captain Flavel's new wharf is about completed. It has been carefully and substantially constructed, and is a great improvement to the old one. It will afford accommodation for numerous large vessels, as well as convenient and commodious landing for the river steamers. On that portion of it facing the Occident Hotel it is intended to erect a row of substantial stores, which, when erected, will, with Mayor Case's fine three-story building, now nearly completed, greatly improve that portion of the town.

THE TURF.

This afternoon there will be a lively trotting match over the Riverside race course between Eph Maynard and Little Mollie. B. B. Acker enters and drives Eph and J. J. Welch Mollie. Purse, $75; mile heats, 2 best in 3 to harness; free to all. Race will be called at 2 o'clock sharp. A lively time may be anticipated.

The Independent says: "S. G. Reed brought 13 horses on the grounds Friday. Osceola, Nell Flaherty and Foster have stalls already taken, we are told. Basket, of Polk county, with his lot of running horses, is coming. From present appearances there will be some exciting scenes on the turf at our fair. A contest of speed between Osceola and Foster would be a sight to see. The track is heavy now, but will be worked down and in good condition by the fair. The outside and inside of the track are in good condition already, but the middle is heavy. H. Boyd says that if the track is made first-class, horse men all over the state will come here henceforth to train their horses, and, of course, will trade at our stores, board at our hotel, and scatter a good deal of money among us."

WHEN ELIHU CAME HOME

All her life long Sara Holmes had had a romance It began and ended with these words When Elihu comes home And though she was but nineteen years old at the time of which I write it seemed to her on the evening of that burning July day as she sat in her bedroom and looked out upon the moonlight fields that she had been living one or two centuries in the world and all the time dreaming golden dreams of Elihu, only to find them shivered into atoms at the last

For Elihu had come And the time and manner of his coming were so unlooked for and so unexpected to her as well as to every one else that the girl sat there in the moonlight saying to herself He is here I need never watch or wait for him again In the next chamber to mine he is sleeping—that is if he can sleep poor Elihu!

The earliest stories she could remember had been told to her by her mother about Cousin Elihu and the enormous fortune he had made down South, at a time when fortunes could yet be made in that unhappy land She had heard fabulous tales of the palaces in which he lived of the negro slaves who flew to do his bidding of the beautiful carriages and horses that bore him from place to place and of the jewels the silks satins and velvet that fortunate woman would possess who would one day become Elihu's bride

Other girls have heard these stories also and the belle of the school at Homesdale often said that when she was sixteen she should 'go traveling,' and find her way down South, and 'set her cap' for Elihu Holmes That the result would follow for which she looked, no girl among them all doubted for even the master's stern face softened and smiled upon Rosanna Meadows, when she shook back her golden curls and lifted her large blue eyes, with a blush to his

Poor Rosanna! Sara leaned her cheek on her hand and looked over the hill top toward the village graveyard where the village beauty was now lying with her blue eyes closed her golden ringlets smoothed back from her white brow and her hands clasped in an unearthly quiet on her breast Elihu had never known how her girlish heart went out toward him And now Elihu had come home!

As Sara Holmes grew up and developed from the tall angular girl into the queenly and self possessed young woman she thought, would sometimes occur to her as she stood before the mirror braiding her dark hair If he should come back would he think me pretty, now that Rosanna is gone? The broad, low brow, the oval cheek and dimpled chin unscreened, the healthful color, the deep dark eyes, the sudden bright, bewildering smile, said, "Yes! For hers was now a higher beauty than Rosanna's pink and white loveliness had ever been and the treasures of her mind and heart might well have won an older and wiser man to love her long before Elihu came home

And now she drew a long breath, and set herself to recall all the incidents of that sudden and startling return

The day was over—the milk was strained—and Mrs Holmes was sitting on the front piazza under the shade of the maples and locusts while her father read bits from the weekly paper aloud Her step-mother was knitting her sister Grace was fitting a hat, and her brother Ben was whittling out a toy boat from a bit of wood while she Sara, sat beside him and held his tools as he needed them and lost herself in a reverie about her hero in the South

A carriage drove up to the village road and halted at their gate. The driver descended from his seat and beckoned to her father, who hurried down to the gate to meet him After talking for some time together, a small trunk was lifted down and left beside the gate). The carriage door was opened and a tall figure descended and directly after, Ben, who had followed his father in a fit of boyish curiosity galloped back with distended eyes, whispering loudly

"Mother—girls! Cousin Elihu has come! and he has lost every cent of his property down South! I heard the driver tell father so! And they have sent him off up here alone because they thought he was going to be sick, and there he is you see leaning on father and the driver and he can't but just walk Isn't it a blamed shame of those South erners?

"Mercy!" exclaimed Ben's step mother rising as they all rose, when the tall, slender figure approached.

Sara looked up with her heart in her eyes, to greet Cousin Elihu no less a hero to her for the pitiful history of loss and ruin that she had just heard

He was a tall upright elegant looking man with fair complexion large melancholy blue eyes a long straight nose drooping eyebrows fine lips and a firmly rounded chin that somewhat counteracted the listless sadness of the face. His hair was turning gray and the heavy golden brown mustache had one or two threads of silver but with that exception he wore no look of age.

Elihu was well but plainly dressed in a traveling suit of gray He removed his hat as he drew near the ladies with a courteous grace but he looked in vain for the warm welcome from the second Mrs Holmes and her daughter Grace that he would have received from his own cousin had she been alive

Mrs Holmes bowed to him coldly, though Cousin Elihu and Grace angry with him and with herself for the sudden collapsing of sundry ambitious hopes which she had never confided to anyone except her mother swept him her latest dancing school courtesy and affected not to see the hand he held out

Elihu colored slightly and turned to Sara whose large black eyes were fixed with a look of tender pity upon his refined and melancholy face

"You have a face that I ought to know" he said to her, gently "You are my cousin's child dear Sara! I hoped she would be here to meet me when I came home at last"

Sara's heart was already full and this reference to her dead mother, caused her tears to overflow

"Dear Cousin Elihu" said she taking his hand in both hers, my mother remembered and loved you to the last day of her life She would have been glad indeed to see you here once more I am glad, too All my life long I have looked forward to your coming

But you did not expect to see me return so poor said Elihu, sighing

"Dear me rich, or matters little, replied Sara fervently "You are here at home once more and that is enough to make us all rejoice"

Aye, said Elihu, looking from her beaming countenance to the cold faces of the rest "I should have been glad to bring gold enough to make me welcome But what has happened has happened and I do not wish to complain Cousin Joshua for my cousin's sake of the old times when you and I were boys together Lucius you will let me stay as the old homestead for a few days"

Eh? Oh to be sure! Stay and welcome stammered the farmer who feeling the eyes of his wife and his daughter Sara fixed upon him was like a man between two fires

So it was settled and Sara flew about like a good fairy to prepare supper for the wanderer and afterwards, to set in order his room and bed At nine o'clock he retired, and then the storm burst forth

The second Mrs Holmes inquired shrilly if their house was to be turned into a poor farm, and made the abiding place of every shiftless creature who had wasted his substance in riotous living among those negroes' —only to come, at the last without a penny in his pocket to be supported by those who had the misfortune to be related to him in a distant way

Mr Holmes said meekly that it wasn't like Elihu would want to stay long and that as he had once redeemed the farm which was heavily mortgaged with his own money and gave a deed of the place to his first wife he did not very well see how he could refuse him shelter there if he claimed it—for a time at least he added nervously seeing his wife's black eyebrows knitting together in a way that he had learned to dread

Grace upheld her mother in all her denunciations though Sara thought sorrowfully that it would have been more delicate had she kept silence since as the daughter of Mrs Holmes by a former marriage, she could not be supposed to have any great interest pecuniary or otherwise in the disposition of the homestead farm

As for Ben like most boys of thirteen he was on the side of right against might and he did not scruple to say that for his part he hoped Cousin Elihu would stay there forever and that he was sure if he had redeemed the farm that he had a perfect right to do so His sister Sara could have kissed him for the answer, but she kept silence

The days went on By every art that a mean and paltry spirit could invent, Mrs Holmes the second showed plainly to Elihu how unwelcome he was beneath her roof tree As for Grace she simply ignored him— And Mr Holmes though he would gladly have been both grateful and kind, was so tamed by nightly curtain lectures hours long that he dared not show the rumed man any attention and only looked at him wistfully now and then as if wondering when he would be gone.

Thomas plate knife and fork were placed upon the table at every meal it is true He fared and rested fare and had his room and bed were the best in the house

But this was Sara's doing To her alone Elihu owed each moment of happiness which he enjoyed in the old house The sister and her young brother were always glad to be with him but the other inmates of the house looked over and round him and even when he ate of their bread and drank of their cup seemed as if they knew him not Sara's proud spirit blazed up for his sake at a thousand petty insults and affronts each day She wondered privately to herself and aloud to Ben how Cousin Elihu with the memory of his past wealth and grandeur fresh in his mind could endure it Nor was she surprised when one pleasant evening just four weeks after his arrival Elihu told her he must go

I cannot blame you so heartfelt have you been treated she said while her heart sank down in her breast like a stone sinking into the depths of the tiny lake on whose banks they sat But where will you go, Cousin Elihu? What will you do You were ill when you came here and thanks to their unkindness you are not yet well and strong enough to care for yourself O it is a shame—a shame! she broke out again

And if you had come rich as they expected, every one of them would have been at your feet

Cousin Elihu smiled the smile that always brightened his melancholy face till in her eyes it was the noblest handsomest face on earth

Never mind them Sara he said you and Ben have been so good to me that I have scarcely noticed the rest So good that—

He paused and looked at her

Sara when I am gone shall you miss me?

The tears rose to her eyes

O how can you ask? You know Elihu that when you go I shall think of you among strangers poor perhaps ill perhaps dying—

She hid her face in her hands and sobbed aloud

Elihu waited till her grief had exhausted itself and then took her hand

What you say is all very true, Sara I am not fit to go out into the world alone Will you go with me? You have a good home here I know but if I have you to work for I will soon give you a better one And by and bye Ben can come to us and we will make a man of him Will you be my wife Sara?"

She looked at him with all the solemn fervor of a woman's love and devotion shining in her eyes

If you will take me Elihu and let me care for you I shall be the happiest creature on earth From the moment when I knew you come at the farm gate from the moment when I knew that your fortune was gone and that you were ill and alone in the world I have prayed that you might love me I don't care where our home is or what it is so that we share it together I can be happier with you in a log but than I could be with any one else in a palace for you need me Elihu and I—I have thought and dreamed of you and I really believe loved you from the day when my mother told me about you, when I was sitting at her knee"

So they were betrothed and after a storm at the farm house when her decision was first made known, Sara followed the fortunes of her lover to a distant city where they were married

Ben went with her as her protector and best man Her father kissed her and cried over her as he bade her farewell and put a pocketbook containing five hundred dollars into her hand for the wedding portion

I can't go with you to give you away, my dear and I can't let you be married here said the poor man I shall never hear the last of it if I do, and I'm getting old, now and I want peace and quiet in my own home But God bless you Sara and your husband that is to be Poor Elihu! Your mother loved him dearly and I don't know a fault he has in the world except that he is poor

So strengthened by her father's approval and blessing, Sara approached the altar to consecrate her life to the hero of her dreams

The ceremony over they drove to a first class hotel and breakfasted in a style that made Sara tremble for the future And after breakfast Elihu laid a package before her and a casket by the side of her plate

"My first present to my wife said he As for you Ben—"

A cry of delight from Ben made his sister turn round to look at him The boy was gloriously in a gold hunting watch and chain

Open your casket love said her husband smiling

She obeyed and a river of light seemed to flush upon her from the diamonds within At the same moment her husband broke the seal of the package and showed her a bank book inscribed with her name

Ten thousand dollars are deposited there subject to your order said Elihu carelessly Ten thousand dollars! and the watch and the diamonds! gasped Sara, turning pale What can it all mean?"

I know" broke in Ben, with a joyous laugh Cousin Elihu has only been pretending to be poor all this time Nicely sold all those people at the farm will be!

Sara turned to her husband He smiled and drew her closely to his breast From that happy day not a wish of hers or Ben's has been ungratified And all the romance of her life began instead of ended (as she for a time supposed) when Elihu came home

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words among us, not only one but many in succession, must possess extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation and so thoroughly established it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral It has been known to the public about forty years, during which period cases of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues never equalled by any other medicine Until made, the most efficient remedy for Coughs Colds Consumption that can be made is medicinally known. Indeed the Cherry Pectoral has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors to a great extent and given a feeling of humanity from their fatal effect, that is well founded If the remedy be taken in season Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members sickness suffering and even life is saved by this timely protection The public should not neglect it and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY & COLOR.

Advancing years sickness disappointment mental and hereditary predisposition all will turn the hair gray and change them from the beautiful shades of youth to the sickly hue of age Nature sometimes does this prematurely, but more frequently it is the work of disease, which this preparation counteracts and cures. It stops the falling of the hair restores the growth and always surely restores it color when faded or gray Nothing can be more harmless as an application to the human hair It contains neither oil dye nor any form of material which can injure the most delicate fibre but on the contrary is a dressing which will keep the hair healthy and vigorous to the last period of life Those who have used it know its value and those who have not should make a trial at once Its occasional use will prevent the hair from becoming thin or harsh and consequently brittle and will thus save the frequent cutting required by those who allow it to grow to its full length Thousands who have used it for the restoration of gray hair to its natural color, have testified to the great value of this result of its use Those who have suffered from the falling of their hair from any cause may rely on a new growth being produced by the use of this preparation Though it may not restore the hair in every case, yet in no instance where there is vitality in the roots or follicles will this fail to produce the desired effect Even when all vitality seems to be destroyed this preparation will in the majority of cases restore the vitality and cause a new growth of hair

Horrible Disease.

How many thousand females are there who drag out a miserable existence from the effects of disease, from virus absorbed in the system, and transmitted to their offspring, from the fearful consequences of indiscretion in their youthful days, from the broken-down constitution and impoverished blood, the result of the happiness of marriage destroyed by the ignorance of one or both parties in this horrid situation? Reader, does this picture look familiar to you? Let us advise you, and tell you how to escape the many horrible life-destroying evils that are continually being made known to the public through the columns of the daily papers.
